

The internet deserves to be recognized as a Utility and not something to be controlled by Telecom companies. The taxpayers have supported and paid for the building of the structure of the internet, not AT&T or Verizon or others. We do pay them for the connection to that entity and it should not be restricted by their requirements for additional financial gain. Please give back the privacy protections we need and deserve and do not allow Net Neutrality to be reversed.

Thanks